From structural integrity to core components, each element is engineered for longevity and rigorously inspected to meet our uncompromising expectations.

This warranty is more than a promise—it is peace of mind. It represents our dedication to enduring quality, thoughtful construction, and long-term partnership with our clients, ensuring that your cabinetry continues to perform beautifully and elevate your home for years to come.

Fronts:

Our fronts are the expression of true exclusivity. Developed within our own collection, our 22 mm panels are designed to elevate cabinetry beyond the ordinary, allowing us to manufacture pieces of unparalleled refinement and precision. An exceptional range of wood-inspired finishes, sophisticated textures, and solid tones creates spaces that are deeply personal while remaining flawlessly functional.

At the core, we use Italian-standard MDF panels, meticulously sealed with PUR for enhanced durability, stability, and long-term performance. Every surface is engineered to withstand daily use while maintaining its elegance for years to come.

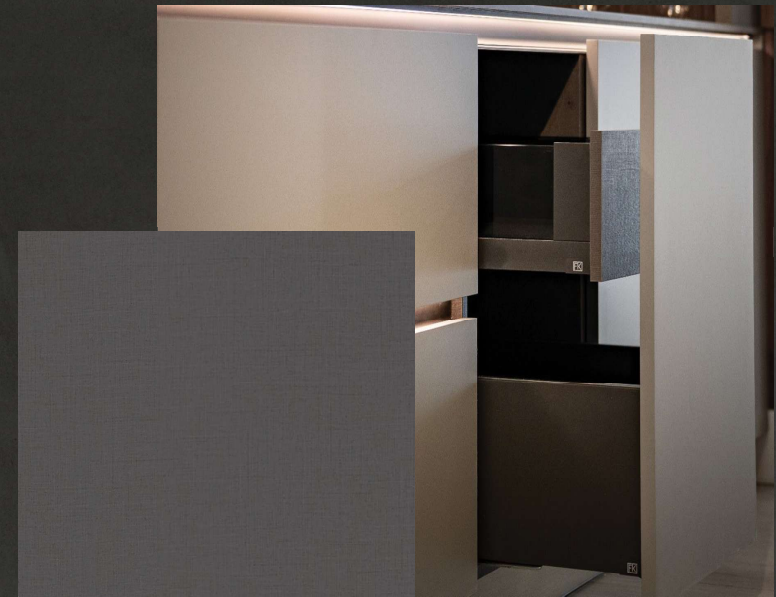

Our focus is simple yet uncompromising: to craft cabinetry that feels unmistakably individual—reflecting each client's values, lifestyle, and aesthetic—while projecting a timeless presence defined by quality, innovation, and distinction.

Hardware:

Our hardware selection is driven by performance, precision, and design flexibility. We use heavy-duty drawer systems engineered to support up to 150 lbs per drawer, ensuring exceptional strength and smooth, effortless operation even under substantial loads. Pull-out systems are available in multiple heights, allowing each configuration to be tailored precisely to the client's functional and lifestyle needs.

Our hinge systems are carefully matched in tone and finish to maintain a cohesive, refined interior aesthetic while offering advanced adjustability for perfect alignment. By specifying premium, award-recognized European hardware, we ensure optimal performance, durability, and a clean, understated appearance.

This commitment to superior hardware allows us greater creative freedom—empowering a highly personalized approach to high-end cabinetry, where thoughtful engineering and elegant design come together to create truly distinctive interiors.

Our Boxes and Interiors:

Our standard interiors are finished in an exquisite Tela texture—silky to the touch and unmistakably refined. Crafted on a 19 mm MDP core and meticulously sealed for long-term performance, this interior system is engineered for both beauty and resilience. Celebrated for its performance, high-pressure laminate (HPL) offers exceptional resistance to heat, chemicals, and bacteria, making it the ideal choice for those who demand uncompromising durability alongside sophisticated design.

Sustainability is integral to our process. Our panels are produced from 100% recycled wood and are CARB Phase 2 compliant, ensuring minimal impact on indoor air quality while maintaining the highest standards of quality and environmental responsibility.

At Fioreli, every detail reflects a thoughtful balance between ethics and elegance—where responsibly sourced materials, enduring construction, and elevated aesthetics converge within each bespoke project.
